SUBJECT: Individual Crisis Intervention and Peer Support & Group Crisis Intervention

TO: Course Participant

You have been selected to attend the Individual Crisis Intervention and Peer Support & Group Crisis Intervention (CISM) training session at the Danny Rhynes Training Center on April 29 – May 2, 2013. Class will begin at 0830 hours on Monday, April 29, and conclude at approximately 1700 hours on Thursday, May 2.

Course Description:

The course provides training in positive coping strategies for stress, and to help others validate their thoughts and emotions surrounding a critical incident. The course is not intended to replace the need for mental health care professionals or their roles and responsibilities. Attendees who successfully complete this session will be encouraged to provide peer support when a need arises.

Program Highlights:

Designed to present the core elements of a comprehensive, systematic and multi component crisis intervention curriculum, the course will prepare participants to understand a wide range of crisis intervention services. Fundamentals of Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) will be outlined and participants will leave with the knowledge and tools to provide several group crisis interventions, specifically demobilizations, defusings and the Critical Incident Stress Debriefing (CISD).

Target Group:

The course is intended for law enforcement, fire, aviation, and agency personnel who will be trained to identify with their peers who have experienced a critical incident
